

KILLER HIS OWN GUEST

C. C. Davis Sentenced for Thirty Years for Murder.

INSANITY PLEA SAVED HIM

The Anti-Saloon League Appoints a State Organizer—A Burglar Enters an Office But He Gets Little Plunder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 5.—C. C. Davis was brought to the penitentiary last night by Sheriff B. Sturgill, of Ashe county, to serve thirty years for one of the most horrible murders ever perpetrated in this State. The plea of insanity only saved him from the gallows. He arose one night and with an axe brained Levi Baker as he slept in bed as his guest, and dealt several fearful blows to Alfred Baker, father of Levi.

Davis' wife rushed in to interfere, and was so badly cut that she died a few days later. Davis made no attempt to escape and did what he could to nurse his wife back to health. He said last night: "I would rather have killed myself. Something just came over me. I don't know what it was. The whole affair just seems like a bad dream."

TEMPORARY INSANITY.
Temporary insanity is claimed to have been caused by grief over the loss of an only child, and by attending preaching by a sanctificationist preacher. Insanity was not sufficiently established, and the thirty year sentence was a compromise sentence.

Mr. W. M. Hinton, of Pasquotank county, has been appointed State organizer for the State Anti-Saloon League. He was a member of the last General Assembly, and took an active part in temperance questions and legislation on the floor of the House.

BURGLAR IN OFFICE.
A burglar entered the residence of Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, last night. The only thing of value missing was a pair of opera glasses. Doubtless other things were taken. The family are in the mountains for the summer.

Wake county Confederate Pension Board has approved thirty-four applications for pension and turned down forty others. Professor Robert W. Page, a 1901 graduate of Columbia University, New York, has been added to the Agricultural and Mechanical College faculty, to be in charge of the department of chemistry, and will give instruction in metallurgy, assaying and electro chemistry.

A BIG SHORTAGE.
Thomas Daniels, of Newbern, was today appointed receiver for Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, Newbern, by Judge Brown, the bankruptcy judge. Daniels gave bond to-night in the sum of $30,000, and will take charge to-morrow.

Chairman Franklin McNeill, of the Corporation Commission, says Bank Examiner Ellington, in charge of the bank examiners, reports that the shortage of cash in the State is not less than $75,000 and may reach $100,000.

The Atlantic Coast Line, Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway Companies are today making application to the Corporation Commission to their recent tax assessments of railroad property. Principal grounds for exceptions are that the assessments are based on the value of the property of the roads, in money are out of proportion to and greater than the assessments of other property, and that the law under which the assessments were made is unconstitutional in that it prescribes a different and more arbitrary rule of assessment of property of railroads than for property generally in the State.

No time has been set for hearing argument on the exceptions.

MYSTERIOUS DROWNING OF CAPT. B. M. POTTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 5.—Captain Bryant M. Potter, master of the Wilmington steamer Franklin Pierce, and one of the most capable pilots of this port, was mysteriously drowned this morning a few miles off this coast. When last seen he was asleep in his berth in the stern of the boat. A member of the crew was sent to wake him, and was dumfounded to find that Captain Potter had disappeared. A complete search of the steamer revealed the fact that he had gotten overboard, and, of course, was drowned.

None of the crew knew when the captain left his berth. It is believed that he fell overboard while waiting in his sleep. Captain Potter was a native of Southport, N. C., and was a prominent citizen of that place. He was fifty-five years of age and spent nearly all his life as a pilot and master of the coast. A careful watch will be made for his body in case it is washed ashore.

PROFESSIONAL HOTEL THIEF IS CAUGHT IN ACT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 5.—T. R. Leach, twenty-four years old, claiming to be an insurance agent, registered at Raleigh, N. C., was arrested here this evening, charged with stealing from guests of the hotel. He was taken to the Benbow Hotel here two weeks ago from repeated loss of money and clothing.

On his return Monday he stopped at the McAdoo Hotel. A watch was kept on him, and he was caught in the act of stealing clothing from a guest's room. In his baggage was found jewelry, all kinds of clothing, gold eyeglasses, razors, toilet articles, cravats and even boxes of face powder.

A coat lost in Winston hotel was identified. Five charges of larceny were lodged and before the mayor he waived examination in default of $50 bond in each case he was placed in jail.

Circumstances point to him as a professional hotel thief. His dress style is said to be common to the class, and to have prominent connections in Norfolk, Va.

DIED SUDDENLY

J. E. Catlin Found in His Home With Life Extinct—Family Absent.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 5.—J. E. Catlin, a widely known adjuster for fire insurance companies, was found dead at his residence here this evening. His family is absent, and a friend who called found him lying on a couch apparently asleep with an electric fan in motion near him. He had been dead an hour, supposedly from heart disease.

Killed Under the Wheels.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Aug. 5.—Melvin Bowman, a colored man, thirty years, was run over and killed on the Southern yard here about 2 o'clock this morning. Bowman was from Danville, Va., but had lived in Winston-Salem for several months, and was a tobacco roller in Taylor Brothers' factory. He was conscious until a few minutes of death. He told one of his bystanders that the accident that he had been drinking.

A Dangerous Hoax.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEAUFORT, N. C., Aug. 5.—The bodies of Ernest and Raymond Conner, aged respectively eleven and thirteen years, were found in the creek near their home at Beaufort, about three miles from here to-day. It is believed that they had been playing upon a raft and fell into the stream.

Two Lads Drowned.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEAUFORT, N. C., Aug. 5.—The bodies of Ernest and Raymond Conner, aged respectively eleven and thirteen years, were found in the creek near their home at Beaufort, about three miles from here to-day. It is believed that they had been playing upon a raft and fell into the stream.

James City Candidates.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Aug. 5.—Yesterday morning the James City candidates could file their applications, in order to enter the primary. The following gentlemen filed their applications with the Board of Supervisors yesterday: For sheriff—M. R. Harrell, W. W. Ware. For assessor—Thomas G. Wynne. For attorney for the Commonwealth—N. L. Henley. For commissioner of the revenue—S. S. Hankins, C. P. Martin. For supervisor, Jamestown District—H. T. Armistead. For supervisor, District—J. E. Banks, J. R. Bush. For supervisor, District—R. B. Geddy, Dr. H. N. Stephenson.

Dinwiddie Dots.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
REAMS, VA., Aug. 5.—Farmers are very much disheartened thinking the peanut crop will fall short. Fruits and melons are bringing pretty fair prices. Mr. Arthur Williams, a local farmer, announced himself a candidate for supervisor of Rowan District, also Mr. J. P. Sucker, the present incumbent. He is out as independent candidate for the commissioner of revenue, District No. 2, for the November election.

Politics in Dinwiddie.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FORD, VA., Aug. 5.—Politics are running high in Dinwiddie county, and there is strong opposition for most of the offices. Mr. J. E. Young is being urged by influential men all over the county to be nominated for the House of Delegates, and the indications are that he will accept in a few days. It seems that the temperance movement will be a issue.

At the Theatres.
Al. Haynes, the manager of the company now playing "Too Much Married," is the manager of three theatres in the State of Massachusetts. His excursion to the Wells Circuit is a sort of holiday trip for himself and a few chosen actors, who have been most successful on his own circuit during the past season. Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

Mr. Haynes is a member of the Vandewater, and is well known to be connected with other associations of managers, serving in two of them with Manager Jake Wells in the capacity of director.

MISSIONS DISCUSSED

Progress of Meeting of Middle District Conference.

WILL ADJOURN TO-DAY

Mr. T. F. Lacy Badly Hurt in Manchester—Mrs. Smith Seriously Ill—Lawn Parties—Cases Before Mayor Maurice—Personal Mention.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street, At 1 o'clock to-day the sessions of the Middle District Baptist Association will come to a close, after naming the next place of meeting.

Last night Rev. Dr. Willingham delivered an able discourse on the subject of "Foreign Missions." The report on the subject, presented by R. H. Winfree, was also clearly discussed by Rev. Landon Green.

Devotional exercises were conducted yesterday morning by Rev. M. Solley. The report on Sunday-school and Bible Board, by Rev. W. W. Criddle, was most interesting, and indicated that work along that line was encouraging. The report on the state of the church, also showed that the membership had largely increased. All the churches reported, save one, and that one is expected to report to-day. Contributions to all the boards of the church were liberal.

An able address on "State Missions" was delivered by Mr. William Ellwood, secretary of the board, upon the report made by Mr. W. W. Baker. The new Executive Board was chosen as follows: Judge Hancock, J. S. Taylor, Rev. E. V. Baldy, R. A. Justice, Dr. R. D. J. R. Bagby and Rev. St. G. Abrahams.

Mr. J. A. Tilman, of Powhatan, presented a report on "Systematic Benevolence and Ministerial Support," which was received by Rev. J. E. Banks, Harris, Criddle, Pierce and Mr. Justice. The clerks of all churches were requested to send association letters to the clerk of the association ten days in advance of the annual meeting in future.

Most successful and interesting sessions of the Ladies' Missionary Society were held in the morning and afternoon. The attendance at the meeting has been large and much good is expected to result.

A typographical error in yesterday's paper made it appear that the introductory sermon was preached by Rev. St. G. Abrahams. It should have been Rev. St. G. Abrahams, of the Shenandoah. The sermon was a very able one.

BADLY HURT.
Mr. T. F. Lacy, a workman at the Southern shops, was badly hurt Tuesday afternoon by falling upon a spike, which penetrated his chest. He is now in the hospital, and his condition is serious.

AT THE POINT OF DEATH.
Mr. Smith, a well-known policeman, has been seriously ill for many months, was reported in extremis last night, with no hopes of his recovery.

LAWN PARTIES.
The ladies of Branch's Baptist Church will give a lawn party on Wednesday night next Tuesday night, when refreshments in abundance at city prices will be furnished. Wagons will be at Ceresley's store, Swanboro, from 7 to 8 o'clock to carry those from the city out to the church.

A lawn party will be given at the residence of Mrs. Indy Taylor Friday night for the benefit of Clio Street Church. Mrs. Taylor's residence is on Hull Street, near Clio Street.

SMALL TALK.
Councilman Barlett has lost his badge, No. 14, which he would be glad to have left at the fire engine house.

Mr. Carter M. Harrison, of Powhatan county, has decided to stand for the place of member of the Legislature.

Mr. Robert L. Rivers has officially announced his intention of being a candidate for the House, and has issued his cards. A meeting of the Street Committee will be held to-night.

MAYOR'S COURT.
Mayor Maurice disposed of the following cases yesterday: T. Robinson, E. Bowman, W. East, A. Pugh and E. Gentry, for breaking brooks at Blanton's yards, were each fined $2.50. Frank Crawford and E. Boyles, for intoxication and disorderly conduct, each; Eddie Hudgins, $2.50, same charge.

TARIFF ASSOCIATION IS AT WORK AGAIN
The Southeastern Tariff Association, organized for the purpose of controlling fire insurance rates, and which was driven from the State by the Wharton law some years ago, re-established its stamping office here yesterday under the supervision of Mr. E. T. Caldwell, and hereafter all reports will be made through this office. The new rate books were issued and the work started at 10 o'clock. The Wharton law was recently repealed by the Legislature, and thus the association is again permitted to operate in the State. So far no rates have been made public, but it is believed that the new committee, which body has been at work on the matter for many weeks, made but few changes in the rates formerly used.

Local boards are being formed in all the Virginia cities, and the entire fire insurance business of the State with the exception of a few independent companies, will be conducted under the supervision of the association.

DR. J. N. UPSHUR MAY RUN FOR MAYOR
Some of the friends of Dr. J. N. Uphur, the well-known physician, are talking of his running for mayor at the next election and they are saying that if he will consent to the use of his name, they would make a fine run. Dr. Uphur has said nothing on the subject for publication, though some gentlemen have talked with him. Dr. Uphur is a brilliant man and is quite a student of governmental questions. He is a splendid speaker and would have nothing to fear on the stump.

Mainly About People
Dr. J. Reardon, of Portsmouth, Va., is in the city with his family. He is visiting his brother, J. F. Reardon, who lives in Seventh Street, Pulaski. Mr. Reardon's family have been visiting relatives and friends here for the past two weeks. He is well known among the machinists of this city and is a member of the International Association of Machinists.

Mr. J. Temple Waddell, son of Mr. Sam-

Three-quarters of a century spans the life of the Gorham Co.
Silversmith
which for that space of time has held an unrivalled position as producing the very best silverware at a most moderate cost. The trade-mark guarantees the sterling quality.

All responsible Jewellers keep it uel P. Waddill, of Henrico county, returned home yesterday from West Point, New York. Mr. Waddill was elected by Congressmen John Lamb, and passed his examination successfully, but being an alternate, did not receive the commission. Waddill is just nineteen years old. He is an unusually bright boy, being a graduate of the Richmond High School, and has been a student of Richmond College for two years.

Mr. Cumming Here.
Hon. S. Gordon Cumming, member of the House of Delegates from Elizabeth City county, was in the city yesterday on legal business. Mr. Cumming will not stand for reelection, the copy sent to the House to return to the House two years hence. He says the candidates are former-Delegates L. H. Donohoe and C. G. Cumming. Cumming said that any which of these gentlemen would likely win.

Was Not Concealed.
In the report of the charge of carrying a concealed weapon against Mr. W. H. Muller in the Times-Dispatch Tuesday a typographical slip made it appear that a witness swore that the plaintiff swore that he could not say it was concealed, and it was on this statement that Mr. Muller was acquitted. The copy sent to the House had the "not" in it in the proper place, but it was inadvertently omitted.

OBITUARY.

Oliver Eastburn.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Aug. 5.—Mr. Oliver Eastburn, one of the most prominent citizens of Spotsylvania county, died last night at his home near this city, aged 81 years. Mr. Eastburn was not only prominent as a farmer, but for thirty years he had been a justice of the peace. He was a member of the Baptist church, and was a very successful public school trustee, and has filled many other positions of honor and trust. He was a native of New Castle, Delaware. He came to this section in 1820, and has since resided here. He survived by twelve grown children, as follows: Mrs. M. S. Morrison, Mrs. M. J. Harris, Mrs. Annie E. Morrison, Mrs. Ella Poole, Mr. B. F. Eastburn, Mrs. Maggie S. Rebs, Mrs. Rebecca S. Eastburn, Mrs. Rebecca S. Eastburn, Mrs. Carrie Perry, all of Spotsylvania county; Mr. S. E. Eastburn and Mrs. George H. Morgan, of New Castle, Delaware; and Mr. George H. Morgan, of Mill Creek Hundred, Delaware. An aged brother, Mr. Samuel Eastburn, of New Castle, Delaware, is also a brother. The funeral will take place from the residence on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the family plot in the city cemetery here.

M. M. Krise.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Aug. 5.—Mr. M. M. Krise, whose serious illness was announced in to-day's Times-Dispatch, passed away last night at 10 o'clock. He was the son of the late John M. Krise, and was a native of this city. He was a member of the Baptist church, and was a very successful public school trustee, and has filled many other positions of honor and trust. He was a native of New Castle, Delaware. He came to this section in 1820, and has since resided here. He survived by twelve grown children, as follows: Mrs. M. S. Morrison, Mrs. M. J. Harris, Mrs. Annie E. Morrison, Mrs. Ella Poole, Mr. B. F. Eastburn, Mrs. Maggie S. Rebs, Mrs. Rebecca S. Eastburn, Mrs. Rebecca S. Eastburn, Mrs. Carrie Perry, all of Spotsylvania county; Mr. S. E. Eastburn and Mrs. George H. Morgan, of New Castle, Delaware; and Mr. George H. Morgan, of Mill Creek Hundred, Delaware. An aged brother, Mr. Samuel Eastburn, of New Castle, Delaware, is also a brother. The funeral will take place from the residence on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the family plot in the city cemetery here.

Why Municipal?
By JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.
A few nights ago while walking on one of the best residence streets in Philadelphia, I put my cane up against a pillar of a large rooming house. I was startled to find that they were only tin or thin galvanized iron and gave forth a very hollow sound. I was in the rooming house, that were being built. In the bay-window of a small sitting room were two great columns, fully decorated with wood-work above. Upon examination I found them to be made of wood, and the hollow sound was put up to deceive. They are made to resemble classical columns and the casual observer would be deceived. The substance as long as they remain undisturbed or unwrapped. Our ideas of a pillar are so fixed in our minds that we would not support their own weight unless held in place by nails and screws. Can human actions be so easily deceived? We are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by the "hollow mockeries" of columns, escape their corrupting influences. What parents are there that do not tell their children to associate with lying, deceitful and vicious playmates? They firmly believe and act upon the old adage, "Don't go around with bad company." They are so easily deceived by